

From: Todd Pytel
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/24/02 9:00pm
Subject: Tunney Act comments

I am strongly opposed to the current settlement offered to Microsoft. The Internet is based on a foundation of open standards. Microsoft has repeatedly shown it's willingness to circumvent or modify these standards to prevent meaningful competition and limit consumer choice. The currently offered settlement does nothing to improve this situation. Please consider a settlement that requires, at least, the opening of Microsoft's data file formats and the unbundling of Internet Explorer.

Thank You,

Todd P. Pytel
Educator, Chicago Public Schools